'US Wants Summit Meet, But...' Dulles

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States wants a summit meeting with Russia, but only on condition it would not "intensify the cold war and make more likely that it would turn into a hot war."

In a major foreign policy address, Dulles warned that an improperly prepared East-West meeting could result in a "fatal disaster" if people believe that tensions can be removed "by a stroke of a pen at the summit." Such a belief, he said, would be "folly."

DULLES ALSO SAID that Russia's success in launching an earth-circling satellite may turn out to be a "boomerang" against Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev.

Addressing a National Press Club lunch, Dulles said the Red satellite could mark a "decisive turn" in the worldwide struggle between Communist imperialism and the Free World.

"NO DOUBT THE Communist rulers gained a success," Dulles said. "They have an opportunity to gloat, an opportunity that they have not neglected. But Sputnik, mocking the American people with its 'beep-beep,' may go down in history as Mr. Khrushchev's boomerang."

'Celluloid Kid,' Jewel Thief Suspect, On Trial Monday

Tamarisk jewel thief suspect Jimmy Gould, whose alleged method of slipping into private homes earned him the police title of the "Celluloid Kid," will find the doors opened for him when he walks into Indio's Superior Court Monday.

Gould, a dapper, easy-talking citizen who also faces jewel theft charges in Las Vegas, is accused of taking more than $5,000 worth of gems from a Tamarisk Country Club area home last year.

HE IS SCHEDULED to appear before Judge Hilton McCabe at the Indio Court at 10 a.m. Monday.

AF Purchases Obsolete, Charge

WASHINGTON — Roy T. Hurley, an airplane engine manufacturer, told Senate investigators today that the Air Force still is buying equipment that was considered obsolete by Russian standards three years ago.

Hurley, president and board chairman of Curtiss-Wright, testified before the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee in its investigation of this country's defense strength as compared with Russia's.

ANOTHER WITNESS was Thomas G. Lanphier Jr., vice president of Convair, an aircraft and missile manufacturer. He said conventional bombers will be needed "for many years to come" but are being neglected because of "over-optimism" about ballistic missiles.

On the other side of Congress, the House Armed Services Committee, conducting a similar defense inquiry, questioned Deputy Defense Secretary Donald A. Quarles behind closed doors.

QUARLES TOLD reporters before his committee appearance that the Pentagon is working a lot of "new imaginative" programs for the space age. They include a study of space ships, he said.

Reporters told him that Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.) charged in a House speech that the country is following a "stand pat" philosophy in the face of Russia's space challenge and that the Pentagon has "nothing startling" on its drawing boards.

Quarles replied that the Defense Department has programs which "seem new and imaginative to me."

IN A SPEECH prepared for delivery to the House, Holifield called for a "major" effort to develop a space ship coupled with a stepped-up program to build nuclear submarines which can fire long range missiles from underwater.

If this country fails to "control and master" both outer space and the underseas, he said, "we will default from world leadership and become a second class power."

21 Killed, 90 Injured By Earthquakes

Southern Peru Hit, Toll Expected To Go Even Higher

AREQUIPA, Peru. — Violent earthquakes Wednesday rocked a 375-mile strip of Peru's southern mountains, killing at least 21 persons and injuring 90, authorities here reported today.

Earth shocks were reported from the mountain city of Nazca in the north to villages in the Chilean border area of southern Peru.

THE EPICENTER of the quake was at Mejia, a village about 60 miles southwest of Arequipa. Casualties and damage were especially heavy in this city, Peru's second largest.

Official sources reported 21 dead, but the toll is expected to mount as reports trickle in from areas isolated by the quakes.

Fully 70 per cent of the buildings in Arequipa suffered some damage, and many structures in the "white city" district, which predates the Spanish conquest, were reduced to dust and rubble.

THE QUAKE SNARLED telephone and power wires and ruptured water pipes, leaving Arequipa's 200,000 people without water at the height of the South American summer. City authorities estimated that it will take three to five days to restore the regular water supply.

Variance Board Has Three Items On Agenda Friday

Three items are scheduled at the Palm Springs Variance Board meeting Friday afternoon starting at 2 p.m.

Two are public hearings that have been continued from previous meetings. S. J. Wolin has applied for a sign variance for Palm Canyon Lodge at 2330 North Palm Canyon Drive, and George W. Mitzner and Burton A. Browne has an application for variance from fence height provisions at 2701 Plaimor Avenue.

A new public hearing has been set for 2 p.m. on a request by Abe Swartz for a 10 foot side setback variance for a lot located between Cameo Way and La Jolla Road and directly across from Sahara Trailer Park.

Planners Deny Cement Plant Zone Permit

Property Owners Join in Protest At Public Hearing

The Eager Beaver Ready Mix Co., Inc., was denied a variance by the County Planning Commission this week which would have permitted it to establish a concrete ready mix batch plant in a W-2 zone on a site on the north side of 34th Avenue, a mile south of Ramon Road, and approximately one mile east of the city limits of Palm Springs.

Jim Howard of West Covina appeared before the commissioners as representative for the ready mix company. No one appeared to support him.

IN OPPOSITION to the plant H. L. Thompson, Riverside attorney, spoke in behalf of Mrs. Pearl McManus, and George Gannon expressed his views as a resident of Palm Springs and as vice president of the Palm Spring Capital Company.

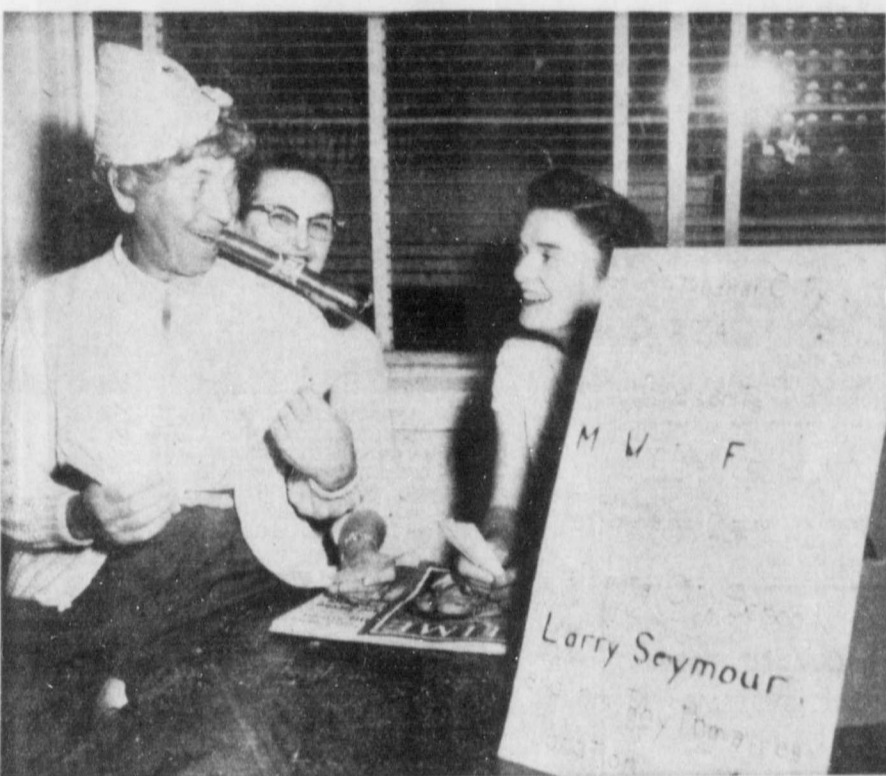

Opposition of the City of Palm Springs in the form of restrictions was made known in a telegram from Hy Ranes, planning director, and there were several other telegrams and letters urging denial of the requested variance.

MAJOR OBJECTIONS were: 1. On the basis that a ready mix plant would be incompatible with contemplated "high class" development of the area surrounding the plant site, and 2. As to roads which might be used by the company's trucks traveling between the plant and Desert Hot Springs.

Howard admitted that the matter of a trucking route presented a problem. He said that although it would add three miles to the shortest route via Indian Avenue, Sunrise Way and Ramon Avenue, he planned to use Old Highway 99 to Thousand Palms and then Ramon.

GANNON REVEALED plans for a major development on 333 acres sold to him by Mrs. McManus and adjacent to the ready mix property, which would include a golf course. He said access roads would be built and expressed fear that Eager Beaver would eventually use them for trucking.

Thompson said Mrs. McManus contemplates that large acreage she still owns in the area will undergo exclusive development.

HARPO MARX, who believes that comfort comes first and then civic duty, relaxes on the lap of Cathedral City P-TA treasurer Ethel Adressi while he buys the first tickets to the Mid-Winter Frolic from P-TA president Helen Carnahan. With a gesture of "come on, let's all get goin'," Marx said that aside from the booth in front of the post office, merchants in Cathedral City also had tickets on sale. The Frolic will be held on Jan. 25 at the school cafeteria and will feature dancing and refreshments for all participants. (Desert Sun Photo)

Winter Storm Heaps Snow In New England

By UNITED PRESS

Sleet, freezing rain and snow today followed in the path of a winter storm that heaped up more than two feet of snow in New England.

The U.S. Weather Bureau reported that snow continued to fall over the Northeast during the night and that 25 inches were on the ground at Rumford, Maine, at midnight.

THE BROAD STORM area extended as far south as West Virginia and Northern Kentucky where light snowfall deposits were noted. Farther north the storm unleashed its full strength.

Meanwhile, the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington issued its 30-day forecast, covering the period from mid-January to mid-February. Colder than usual temperatures were predicted for the eastern half of the nation, except for New England. The biggest drops were forecast for states bordering the Gulf of Mexico.

Campaign Leaders Prepare For United Fund Drive

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Community campaign leaders today prepared for the Feb. 1 opening of the first annual United Fund drive in Desert Hot Springs.

Fund director A. W. Langlois announced a goal of $5,075 for the United Fund appeal, combined with the United Community Agencies of Desert Hot Springs.

The DHS drive, to be headquartered at 12095 Palm Drive, will get under way with a call for volunteer workers and an intensive door-to-door campaign throughout the community area, Langlois said.

IN ADDITION, directors of the United Community Agencies, who will also captain the United Fund appeal, plan to visit all area club, service organization and church group meetings to promote the campaign.

Langlois today emphasized the fact that $2,900 of the campaign goal remains in Desert Hot Springs to finance such services as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Youth League, family services, civic aid and the Crippled Children's Foundation.

The drive director pointed out that funds are particularly needed to build quarters for the Youth League and Scout activities.

THE UNITED FUND includes such national organizations as American Red Cross, Arthritis Foundation and National U.S.O.

United Community Agency directors spearheading the joint fund campaign are Mrs. Gussie Young, vice president; Joseph Kanya, Robert Newman, Raymond Quick, Dr. Leroy Stewart, Hugh Green, Theodore Leonard, Rev. Byron Haines and August Forget.

Board to Hold Special Meeting On Classrooms

Palm Springs Board of Education members will consider preliminary schedules for construction of new school district classrooms at a special board meeting tonight.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the conference room at the high school administration building.

Board members will also view the annual school district auditor's report.

The board is expected to take initial action for creation of a minimum five classroom wing for the high school and a four room addition for the junior high school with funds provided by last month's $2,138,000 bond issue.

Legislation Is Set for Introduction

Calls for Lower Support on Crops, Dairy Products

WASHINGTON. — President Eisenhower sent Congress a program today to make the farmer more dependent on the market and less on the government.

Shortly after his 14-point program reached the House and Senate, Rep. William S. Hill (R-Colo.) and Sen. Burke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) announced they were set to introduce legislation to put it in effect. But it ran at once into farm bloc trouble.

THE PRESIDENT said the government's farm program must be revamped "to deal with the effects of the technological revolution in agriculture."

He called for lower price supports on major crops and dairy products, increased authority to set acreage allotments for cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts, and tobacco, and for elimination of such allotments for corn.

THE PRESIDENT'S 14-point program, if adopted, would reduce the government's role in agriculture, a step recommended by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, and give farmers more freedom to produce.

It would make farmers more dependent on the open market and less dependent on government payments for their income.

The President said few of the dollars spent on agricultural programs have been of appreciable help to the small farmer.

"Price supports have scant meaning to a farmer with little to sell," he said.

"BASIC AGRICULTURAL legislation now on the books was originally devised as an emergency effort to cope with a depression, then changed to help fight a war, and subsequently revised again in an effort to meet the needs of peace," Eisenhower said. "It has not been adequately modified to deal with the effects of the technological revolution in agriculture."

"This must be done now," Eisenhower urged Congress to widen the price support range on the basic crops of corn, cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts, and tobacco, and dairy products from 75 to 90 per cent of parity to 60 to 90 per cent of parity. Parity is the price needed to give farmers a fair return for the things they sell in relation to the cost of things they must buy.

Auto Insurance Rates to Go Up

It was not yet known how much higher the new rates will be. One source predicted as much as 20 per cent.

Board of Education Continues Active Campaign on Junior College

Palm Springs Board of Education members and school district administrators today continued an intensive, round-robin junior college lecture tour throughout the desert area.

School district speakers, promoting the Jan. 21, junior college district election, are today in the midst of a lecture schedule covering at least 20 service clubs, civic organizations and parent-teacher groups throughout the school district.

AIM OF THE barnstorming board members and administrators is to clarify and enumerate reasons for creation of a desert area junior college.

Main points under discussion by the district speakers include enrollment expected when the college opens its doors in 1960, financial aspects of the college program and the effect of higher education on the desert area and the nation itself.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS are pointing out that the area for the proposed junior college district, covering the Palm Springs Unified and the Coachella Valley Union High School districts, now counts 844 students in grades 11 and 12 and more than 200 in grades nine and 10.

It was noted that this is an increase of more than 18 per cent over last year's enrollment in both districts and, educators claimed this is "more than sufficient to start a junior college in this area."

A report from the Board of Education revealed that officials from the California State Department of Education believe that the desert area "has the brightest financial outlook of most of the state."

A district survey conducted by the state disclosed that the proposed college district would have an assessed evaluation of almost four times the average of districts in the state.

STATE OFFICIALS said "there is little doubt that the new junior college can be financed at a nominally low tax rate."

School district officials indicated the belief that the college is becoming increasingly essential because of the growing demand for higher education facilities across the nation.

Saund Gives Final Report on Trip Through 15 Countries of Asia, the Middle East

By D. S. SAUND
29th Congressional District

After a 10-week absence from the United States, during which I traveled through 15 countries of Asia, the Middle East and Europe, I am back in Washington.

The official purpose of my trip was to carry out an assignment of the House Foreign Affairs Committee: to study and report back to Congress on the multibillion-dollar foreign aid program of the United States. Unofficially, I fulfilled a promise I made during the 1956 campaign: to return to India and tell the simple story of how I — a native of India — was elected to the Congress of the United States, the most powerful legislative body in the world.

WHEN I TOOK OFF from San Francisco last Oct. 24, I did not know how I would be received. The warm and affectionate reception accorded me, my wife and my daughter — not only by the people of India, but by peoples of all the countries we visited in that part of the world — was beyond anything I could imagine. By the heads of state and by the man on the street, I was received as a symbol of American democracy in action.

In India, I lunched with Prime Minister Nehru at a private family luncheon. My family and I also spent an hour with the President of India, and I conferred with the Vice President, the Speaker of the House and members of the Cabinet.

OTHER HEADS OF government took time out from their busy schedules to grant me an hour or more of consultation: President Sukarno of Indonesia, President Ngo Dinh Diem of Vietnam, President Carlos P. Garcia of the Philippines and Prime Minister Ben-Gurion of Israel. I also had the great privilege of having an audience with His Eminence Pope Pius XII.

I had an opportunity to address student body groups, civic organizations, municipal corporations and industrial, business and financial groups; these audiences totaled tens of thousands of people. I traveled far and wide into the villages to see and talk with the villagers and farmers.

IN CONNECTION WITH my official mission, I made a thorough study of the many projects carried out under the Mutual Security Aid program in that part of the world. I held prolonged discussions with the U. S. ambassadors and heads of various U. S. government departments. I made personal inspections of rehabilitation camps in Vietnam, various "barrio" (village) projects in the Philippines, rural development programs in India and many other projects totally or partially financed by United States aid.

I received on the spot briefings from the American military commanders stationed in these countries and gathered material for the detailed report which I will submit to the chairman and members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

IN REGARD TO America's position in the Far East this is my conclusion, which I have already conveyed to our Department of State and to the people of the United States over television and in newspaper reports:

There is a great deal of misunderstanding about the American people and their motives in many parts of Asia. A mammoth campaign of anti-American propaganda is being waged by Soviet Russia. As a result, many irritations have been created about the United States through misinformation and misinterpretations of our Nation's actions. But in every country I visited, I found that basically the Asian people do hold feelings of deep respect and affection for the people of America.

NOT ONLY IN INDIA, but throughout the entire Far East, I was accorded honors because they felt proud — and they told me so — to see a man of Asian birth elected to the United States Congress.

After each meeting that I addressed — sometimes as many as eight a day — I invited the audience to ask me straight questions, with the promise that I would give them honest and frank answers. It was my consistent experience that invariably, there was satisfaction and relief after I had clearly stated the simple facts — even about such troubling questions for the India people as United States military aid to Pakistan and America's stand on Kashmir and Goa.

IN OTHER WORDS, there are misunderstandings that must be intelligently and deliberately removed if America is going to succeed in winning the hearts and minds of the teeming millions of freedom-loving, politically-conscious and fully-awake peoples of Asia. I maintain that Americans have too long remained comfortably unconcerned about the evil doings of the Soviets in that part of the world. We must do a better job of selling our way of life and do it fast.

Yes, it may interest the people of the 29th Congressional District that their representative in Congress was invited to address a joint meeting of India's House of Parliament and thus was accorded the same honors as visiting heads of state.

Indio Street Improvement Bids Requested

Improvement of the west half of Oasis Street in Indio in time for the opening of the 1958 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival is anticipated with authorization by the Board of Supervisors this week for advertising of bids to be opened by the board Jan. 27 and received up to the hour of 11 a.m. on that day. The fair commences Feb. 14.

The street is to be a divided road, utilizing existing palm trees and pecan trees, with improvement from Highway 111 to 47th Avenue. Although only the western half is to be constructed now, the entire project is provided for in the 1957-58 fiscal year's budget. Oasis Street adjoins the eastern edge of county-owned property at Indio and is directly in front of the county branch courthouse and administration buildings. The county property extends the full length of the proposed improvement. The project has been discussed with city officials of Indio, according to Road Commissioner A. C. Keith, and the improvement is contemplated as a joint improvement.

In addition to paving of the street, concrete curbs and gutters will be constructed. Estimated cost of the initial portion of the street project is $7,000, with half to be paid by the county and half by the city.

Trailer Park Permit Okehed In DHS Area

A permit was granted by the Board of Supervisors this week to Philip Barzow and M. S. Krasnow of Van Nuys to establish and operate a trailer park in the Desert Hot Springs area in accordance with the County Planning Commission's recommendation. The site of the proposed trailer park is described as "approximately one-half mile north from Dillon Road and approximately 660 feet west from the northerly prolongation of the center line of Corkhill Road."

Lions Club Hears Of Indian Land Problems Here

Speaker this noon before Palm Springs Lions Club and guests meeting in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi was C. Z. German, Indian agent, who had "Problems of Indian Land Development" as his topic.

Dr. C. E. Smith, director of the Desert Museum, was program chairman for the day and introduced the speaker.

Several members of the local club left today for the district convention at San Diego which will continue through Saturday. They will endeavor to bring the 1960 district convention to Palm Springs.

Promote Palm Springs With Special Edition

Everyone who lives in or near Palm Springs has a number of friends, relatives and acquaintances in other parts of the United States who are keenly interested in the attractions, activities and future possibilities of our remarkable desert region.

What nicer gesture than to send each a copy of the first annual Mid-Winter edition of THE DESERT SUN?

This special progress issue would provide them with hours of informative reading explaining the history, growth, present day advantages and many unusual features of scenery and climate. Many might be induced to become visitors, and some to establish residence here.

With this thought in mind THE DESERT SUN printed a large supply of extra copies of the progress edition as well as colorful special wrappers to make mailing easy.

Copies of the Mid-Winter issue already rolled and wrapped for addressing and mailing are available at all newsstands in the area or may be obtained in quantity at THE DESERT SUN. If you are a regular subscriber you may telephone or mail in your list of names and addresses to the circulation department which will do the mailing for you and charge it to your subscription account.

Response and requests from readers for extra mailing copies of the Mid-Winter edition is even greater than expected, so send in lists for mailing without delay as the available supply is in wide demand.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

No rhyme today
Nor roundelay
Not even doggerel
I tried so hard
To be a bard
But nothing seemed to jell.

And it's probably just as well.

TODAY WE HAVE the Desert Senior Golf Association tournament.

Indian Wells will have another tournament on Jan. 21, Thunderbird, starting Jan. 23, Tamarisk, in February.

But, I am wondering. Golf was designed as a healthful exercise. Get out and walk in the sun, great for you.

And what do they do?
Ride around in electric carts, that's what.

BUT, SPEAKING of Indian Wells, I am all for that tournament they have lined up for Jan. 21.

Most of the Big Name stars of the pro circuit will be there. You can watch them do their wizardry for just $2 per person to join the gallery.

And that $2 per person is going for a wonderful cause, the Boys Club Building Fund.

You can get out there, see some wonderful golf, acquire a sun tan and some real exercise (unless you ride in an electric cart), and help a wonderful cause.

NOW, I AM getting into deep water, out of my territory so to speak. I am less than nothing as an authority on women's styles but a remark by Mrs. G. as she looked up from a women's magazine the other day, started a train of thought, which is always good.

Said she: "Skirts are going to be shorter this year. There'll be no hips and the accent will be on legs, not that bosomy effect." That took me back to the 20s. Remember the horrible sack effect of those days?

I THINK that's when they first started calling them bags. Anyway, the thought I had in mind is this:

Women's style are like music. (A pretty girl, etc.)

Songs popular in the 20s, were rearranged and were popular again in the 30s, same process and top tunes in the 40s, the 50s and will probably be in the 60s.

Which I think is good — for music, but not the old Flapper style in clothes.

Me, I'm a stand-patter. I still like double-breasted coats.

NOW TO STEAL a few items to eke out this column.

Red Hill, up at the Town and Country, says you had better start saving your money — It may be valuable again some day.

And for Village mothers: Henry Chauman says, "Youth must be served — and cleaned up after, too."

Also, a thought for the husbands who have to gather in the necessary: Harold Coffin writes "Every woman needs a completely new set of spring clothes this winter to wear when she goes shopping for the summer outfit she'll discard in July so she'll be one of the first to appear in the latest fall clothes."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The hot water is off again this morning. "Ay, what a pity!" said my maid, Josefina.

Like most Mexicans, Josefina looks on plumbing as a mystery. Ranking somewhere in the sputnik class. It is a pity when it doesn't work. But who can understand such complications?

When plumbing does not work, you simply sit back and give it a rest.

IF HANDLES FALL off, you use a pair of pliers. Or, you take off the top of the water tank, tie a wire to the valve and put a pull loop on the end.

"When will the repairman, come, Josefina?"

"God knows these things, señor. Possibly tomorrow."

THE PLUMBING that works in Mexico City is in the park fountains. It works by government order. And heaven help the repairman if it doesn't.

Several years ago, it was a rare fountain that spouted water. The magician who is rebuilding Mexico City is Licenciado (for attorney) Ernesto Uruchurtu, Governor of the Federal District — like our Washington, D. C.

"URUCHURTU IS SO tough and honest," they say in Mexico, "that nobody wants his job. Nobody wants to follow him."

Uruchurtu decreed that the fountains should run. Not tomorrow. Today.

He planted millions of flowers. "It used to be a desert people gladiolas as a present. Uruchurtu has planted so many gladiolas all over the city that they are too common. Now everybody sends roses."

UEURCHURTU THREW the rip-roaring Waikiki night club off the fashionable Avenida de la Reforma. He refuses to issue more bar permits in the same district.

"It is all legal. Uruchurtu is an attorney. He abides by the law. But, man, does he know the law!"

In order to make a sidewalk better, Uruchurtu asked a car park to move its entrance back a few feet. The car park people said no. They were legally safe.

"NEXT DAY," said my friend,

"Uruchurtu sent workmen down. They tore up the whole street in front of the car park. They put 'Do not enter' signs at each end of the street."

"The car park people were wild. They went to Uruchurtu. 'When will the street be repaired, Licenciado?' 'Ah, who knows?' said Uruchurtu. 'Possibly tomorrow. Possibly next year.'"

"The car park people moved their entrance."

ATTORNEY URUCHURTU is known as "Mr. Flowers and Fountains." The flowers and fountains are maintained by private contractors. Uruchurtu had an idea that the city was being overcharged by the flower planters.

"SO HE SENT several young gardeners to the States and to Europe. They learned exactly what flowers should cost to plant and maintain. Now when he is given a price, his own gardeners tell him: if he is being cheated."

Uruchurtu took the valuable Chanuluten Park concession away from powerful political concessionaires. Now the revenues from the rent hants and ice cream stands go to the city. The money is spent building freeways.

He built new refrigerated markets. Your food today does not come off a street stand.

THE FREEWAYS called for ripping out slum areas and old warehouses.

"But we will pay for your property," Uruchurtu told the property owners. "Everything will be legal."

"So," said my friend, "he paid them exactly as they were listed. The property owners had political connections. Their property was listed very low — on account of taxes. Uruchurtu paid them the listed price. What screaming!"

Mexico today is riding cheap buses on cheap freeways alongside flowered parks. But not a Mexican but considers "a miracle man. You can see the miracle — the fountains actually spout water."

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"Off to bed, both of you! ... They'll still be showing that movie when you're old enough to stay up late to watch it! ..."

The Lingering Truth

AIR-BORNE IN EUROPE — Maybe the air traveler moves too fast to learn anything new, but he can hardly feel seeing many old truths confirmed. I have in mind:

"Only the rich talk poor." In Frankfurt-on-Main the president and board chairman of Daimler-Benz, the heavy German automobile, chided his press conference because newspapers have been calling West Germany the "economic miracle" of Europe.

DR. FRITZ KEONECKE, who also serves on numerous industrial committees, discounted the sky-rocket prosperity of his country and his firm. He gave hushed warnings of a leveling-off. This gloom-and-doom talk came from a man whose company was almost non-productive in 1943 and now employs 33,000 workers in five German plants with another 12,500 workers overseas.

The Daimler-Benz sports cars, swank private cars, buses and street cars sell all over the world for top prices, with sales close to 80,000 for last year, the envy of Detroit. If German industrialists ween, they must weep alone. Nobody else feels sorry for them.

"TRULY GREAT MEN. Are The Simplest." There are Congressmen in Washington, in fact there are legislators in State Capitals, who put on more airs than His Holiness Pope Pius in Rome. He came into the small, richly tapestried reception room in his private quarters where we waited.

He was impressive in cream-colored robes and gold-rimmed glasses, but his face lighted with interest and humor as he shook every hand. He asked about the local cardinal or archbishop when he recognized somebody's home town, whether Baltimore, San Francisco or Sydney, Australia.

He made a joke about the American "One More" club when the Vatican cameramen did ask for "one more." In the newspaper business you learn early and never forget that only the greatest of human beings can wear a high-sounding title with ease and grace. All too often the title wears the man.

BUT POPE PIUS XII is a person who makes you forget he is a pontiff, though his dignity never leaves him. At 82 the Pope is of a generation of grand old men — Herbert Hoover, Bernard M. Baruch, Douglas MacArthur, Konrad Adenauer and others. Whence comes their kind again?

"What? Discrimination?" The Vatican police force consists of 112 young men who wear gorgeous multi-colored uniforms designed by Michaelangelo. What are the terms of employment? The young men must be of Catholic faith, which rules out us Protestants. They must be not only Swiss-born, but Swiss for three generations, which plainly excludes us foreigners.

THE FAMOUS SWISS Guard has been protecting the Pope for several centuries, and I have heard no protest that the Vatican State is violating civil rights or fair employment practices. Despite much political balderdash to the contrary, there is such a thing in life as privilege. Swiss youths get these jobs because Swiss soldiers several hundred years ago died valiantly in doing their duty. The Vatican officials exercise discrimination — or taste — in choosing wisely to perpetuate a brave tradition.

It is no slur upon non-Catholics

THE UPSHOT WAS that half of the conspirators were in one corner, singing "My Wild Irish Rose" with one segment of the working press, and the other half was learning some interesting variations on the theme of "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," thought up by a Mr. James Thrasher and myself in honor of the stewardess.

And this I swear on a stack of bibles — a red-headed Hearst photographer arrived late at the hotel as skipper of a tank, with his head stuck out of the turret and both feet on the driver's shoulders, making manful military commands in what he thought was Spanish. Such as, "Bear a little more right-o."

Things got frightfully balled up. Pilots who should have been bravely strafing Caracas were still in the sack in Maracay, nursing sore heads and moaning for aspirin. A few got up and squirted some aimless machine-gun bullets on our hotel roof, but the noise bothered their hangovers and they knocked off.

THE TIME FOR evacuation came, and most of us could be flown out. But there was an overflow. So Master Harry Munkland of Newsweek, Master George Dixon of Kin Features, my United Features, and Missus Bernie Relin for the ride, and non-Swiss that the Papal State acts in this manner. On the contrary, it is a compliment to the human race — and a heartening example to us all — to maintain the Swiss Guard as a living monument to courage and tradition. The world is better off, and not worse off, wherever privilege and discrimination continue to flourish.

WHOM GOD HAS set asunder ... The European Common Market opens for business in 1958, but maybe it will work out and maybe it won't. The distances around Europe seem remarkably short to an American. This may have led to misconceptions. The common air carrier flies from the English capital to the French capital in 75 minutes; from the French capital to the German capital in 60 minutes; from the German capital to the Italian capital in less than three hours.

But the differences between the phlegmatic Englishman, the flighty Frenchman, the stolid German, the lyrical Italian make a mockery of these short hops. Are language, literature, character, skills and temperament — all of them indestructible through centuries of war and "unifying" statesmanship — no more important than mere mileage?

The American, who flies on daily business for longer distances and sees little difference in people of the separate States, tries to equate his country with European nations. Ironically, the first American to make this mistake was Woodrow Wilson, a professor of history, who should have known better. Our American heaving and shoving on Europeans to unite is not good. Nobody loves a pushy matchmaker. — Holmes Alexander.

All I remember of the trip was a series of roadblocks, during which some barefooted Indian with a nervous trigger finger always seemed to point his musket at Mr. Dixon's ample middle, making Mr. Dixon a touch nervous and, of course, that we stopped at an inn and had a very pleasant lunch, and sang a great many revolutionary-type songs.

BUT WHEN WE arrived in Caracas, everybody had a flock of "How?" cables, as our various offices screamed for hot copy. There wasn't any hot copy, but it was warm down there and cold back home, so we made up some amazing stuff.

My contribution was the invention of a casualty, Concepcion Gonzales, aged 18, daughter of a barber, who was shot in the foot. I believe Concepcion made the front page of the good, gray New York Times. The bar bill mounted, and so did the fictional content of the file.

Eventually we all left, laden with honor and little gold flowers with pearls in them, sad to leave such a pleasant revolution, but happy to have prevented bloodshed. These days, when the Concepcion Gonzales Post No. 1 of the Sons of the Venezuelan Revolution meets, it is difficult to separate truth from lie. It was pretty difficult 10 years ago, too. — Robert C. Ruark.

Sons of the Revolution

This last abortive Venezuelan revolution must be bringing at least a few chuckles to about 13 newspapermen, a press agent or so, the old military attaché and a couple of stewards — one of whom, if I remember correctly, was named Bonnie. As a band, we are known as the "S.O.V.S." or Sons of the Venezuelan Revolution.

It happened 10 or 11 years ago. A nice guy named Bernie Relin laid on a press junket to publicize the Aera Postal Venezolana, an airline he was representing. (Bernie gave a free ride to another press agent, who stole the account, but that is another story.)

Well, you know about 15 newspapermen living a ball. Things were quite lively in Caracas, and then they toted us to Maracay, to witness some medal giving at the military academy. This, it turned out, was a mistake.

THE OUTSIDE party was planning to shoot up all the attending military, call it a coup, and seize the country. But even the most dedicated revolutionary finds it difficult to shoot up the brass when the brass is interwoven in the United Press, The Associated Press, the international News Service, Time, Newsweek, United Features, Kin Features, and a few other friends as well. So plans were changed, and the coup did not occur. It was put off until that night.

Well, there was a big social arranged in our more or less honor, and brass from both sides of the fence attended. This went awry, as well, because the booze flowed, and South Americans generally do not hold the stuff as well as North Americans.

took off with the American military attaché at the helm for an overland motor trip. (The military attaché at the helm for his gold hat. He had been shot at before.)

All I remember of the trip was a series of roadblocks, during which some barefooted Indian with a nervous trigger finger always seemed to point his musket at Mr. Dixon's ample middle, making Mr. Dixon a touch nervous and, of course, that we stopped at an inn and had a very pleasant lunch, and sang a great many revolutionary-type songs.

Ruark.

NEW YORK—Steve Allen just proved he can take it. The Circus Saints & Sinners put him through a tough kidding session when he became their Fall Guy. He sat on the hot seat up on the platform and heard the names of Ed Sullivan and "Maverick" hurled at him a couple of hundred times.

The razzmaster, Tex O'Rourke, mentioned that Steve had married a Chinese girl. (Steve's wife, Jayne Meadows, was born in China).

They said that Steve had a pretty bad education, if any. He had gone to so many high schools that he'd "had seven freshmen years," the razzmaster maintained.

First he'd tried Hyde Park High in Chicago, then gone to Phoenix, and eventually he'd come back to Hyde Park High.

"He was a very consistent student," the razzmaster said. "He flunked mathematics again."

They claimed that he was really a guy reared in a theater dressing room and that, when he was only a few weeks old, he was brought on stage in a basket in a vaudeville act. As soon as he found out they wanted him to do this regularly—a few years later—he learned to duck out and run down the alley to the police station, where some cop would give him a lollipop.

Declaring that Steve made his mark on the "Tonight" TV program, Tex O'Rourke added, "Tonight" developed into a really listenable show—after Jack Paar got it."

Steve, only 36, probably the youngest celebrity to be honored with a razz session of such proportions, gave a kidding reply.

"Your show today was so wonderful," he said, "that I would personally like to book part of it for television—for Ed Sullivan's program."

I was talking to Bing Crosby about the CBS TV "golftacular" he's doing from Pebble Beach Jan. 12 and I asked him if Frank Sinatra'd join Phil Harris, Bob Hope and the rest. "He doesn't golf much. He's one of the tools we play with. We call him a 'one iron,'" Bing said. "Ready to do your own TV show regularly yet?"

"No, that's too much exposure if you're going to stay in the movies." "Bing," I said, "last year, in my 'Fearless forecasts' for '57, I said you wouldn't get married."

"Chuckling, Bing said, 'I didn't know it myself till the last minute. It was a sudden inspiration and a very good one the way it turned out.'"

TODAY'S TV BEEF: "TV has gotten into the same rut as Broadway. They should come out to the Midwest some summer and find out what the people are really like. Current Broadway theater depends too much on smut and obscenity. And Hollywood producers continue to pay fabulous sums for Broadway stinkers which were slanted only at New York's neurotic audiences."

After deleting the smut and down-right-filth, there is very little left. Some TV advertising agency boys from Chicago visited our tent show last summer and clocked the laughs on one of our comedy bills. They wondered how they could do half as well with their high-priced comedians and writers." — Neil Schaffner, Sarasota, head of the Neil Schaffner Players.

READER'S GAG: "Sam's the type that sprawls all over a chair—but a perfect gentleman. When a lady enters the room, he always sits up!"—Doug Flynn, Boston.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ... Eva Bartok confided to one intimate: "My baby's of noble blood!"

Comedian George DeWitt spoofed the wolves at John Peron's El Morocco party by telling them Brigitte Bardot was present. The wolves struggled through the mob looking for her ... Turf expert Pat Lynch and wife Gretchen are divorcing ... Kenny Delmar (ex-Sen. Claghorn) is producing industrial films ... Rubirosa, in Palm Beach, denies he's working for a Miami hotel. ## MIKE CONNOLLY:

Natalie, Bob Nix Pic

HOLLYWOOD — Princess Grace and Prince Rainier are looking down their serene noses at Rainier's mother, the Princess Chyslainne de Monaco. She will star in a play called "Mrs. April's Diamonds" at the Nice Playhouse, a hop-skip-a-jump from Their Highnesses' castle on the French Riviera.

And that's the switch of the year: Grace gives up acting and her mother-in-law takes it up. Both Warner Bros. and 20th Fox are trying to talk Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner into co-starring in a picture—"to cash in on the wedding." To date these two wise young ladies have vetoed it ... May Britt, Marlon Brando's "Young Lions" leading lady, moved to a new apartment because the floors in the old place squeaked.

BRANDO, BY THE BY, has changed the "Lions" script considerably from the way the novel ends. In the movie the Nazi, as played by Brando, turns up repentant at the finale ... Milton Berle goofed on a line of dialogue in his nightclub act and explained to the ringsiders: "Wouldn'tcha know it — I get my nose straightened and then my mouth doesn't work!"

Publicity loving Jayne Mansfield's remark about her wedding is the week's wackiest: "This is the one time in my life when I don't want a lot of publicity. The only reason I've invited so many newspaper people is because most of my friends are newspaper people!"

AVA GARDNER apparently was right about not undergoing plastic surgery for that scratch she received on her pretty kisser in a fall from a horse. It's practically healed by now ... The Jet Age: Rhonda Fleming and her husband, Dr. Lew Morrell, flew their private plane to Palm Springs, buzzed the Racquet Club, and had Raquel Tiahi Charlie Farrell sent a limousine to carry them from the airport to their caravansary!

The talk around Inverlille is that Lars Schmidt, Inverlille Bergman's London escort, is a viceroy for her real beau, one of Hollywood's topmost male stars.

DON'T GO AWAY. Here's a telegram I received from Fernanda Montell's press agent: "Fernanda Montell, who opens at the Coconut Grove this week, makes Marlene Dietrich look howlegged." Gams Dietrich herself, incidentally, is strutting a few sequins together for her own sashay into the Sahara in Las Vegas, Jan. 28, and I hope she does a takeoff on Carol Channing, who does one on Marlene.

The Channing-Dietrich vendetta all stemming from Carol's inish impression of Miss Gams, reminds me of the sly, cynical excuse made by Anna Sosenko, Hildegard's one-time manager, for a similar skirmish Hildy once had with another entertainer. Said Anna: "Oh, that Hildy — she's the best of a bad lot!"

TV TOPICS — "Keely," the killer on last Friday's Walter Winchell File, was really Two-Gun Crowley, the notorious mobster of the '30s ... Esther Williams' wages for her You Asked for It slash, all $1,000 of it, will go to Esther's favorite charity, the Blind Children's Foundation.

Jimmy Stewart, intrigued by Rod Steiger's stint on a Schlitz Playhouse, is just about ready to break down and do one for the suds outfit to ... Hugh O'Brian stashed his Wyatt Earp saddle and strapped on the water skis for a siesta in Acapulco, Mexico.

After Douglas Spencer's Sensible Sum-Up: "They've made the cigarettes less irritating, now why don't they do it for the commercials?"

IT'LL BE POPS - VS.-OPERA when Lily Pons guests on the Perry Como show ... Despite his doctor's warnings, Jimmy Durante isn't slowing down. He'll sandwich a Club Oasis show between his nightclub booking at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas and his March 3 opening at the Nationale in Havana, Cuba ... George Gobel is grabb'n' his grabb'n's good too. During his summer vacation he'll play the Riviera in Vegas.

They're shooting Gale Storm's "Oh! Susanna" series so fast on the Hal Roach lot, I had to lie down on a park bench on the set to interview Gale — but out of camera range, natch.

I asked Miss Storm if she plans to play any saloon dates, a la Durante and Gobel. Replied she, while the cameramen were setting up her next scene: "NO!" —and please put it in capital letters with an explanation point when you write it. No performer can do justice to a TV series and slave in the saloons at the same time! ... Are you listenin', Jimmy and George?

Zsa Zsa Pitts, Gale's sidekick, told me she'll soon have a creamy collection on the market called the Zsa Zsa Candy Bar. It's an old family recipe. Zsa promised to send me a sample ... A Univac machine was blowing its top when I stopped next door to the "Susanna" set to visit Anne Jeffreys and Bob Sterling on the set of their new "Love That Jill" series. It was like a scene from "The Dark Set."

Anne's explanation: "The silly machine is for REAL, and it's got to be, believe me, because it's costing our producer $1,000 a day to rent it!" ... Anne keeps falling in love with her "Jill" jewelry and ordering duplicates of the baubles.

Observed Bob, her real-life better half (kidding-on-the-square): "It's keeping me broke, and if we're gonna hafta fall OUT of love!"

Board of Freeholders Continue Debate on Number of Supervisors

Balloting on the first draft of a proposed county charter temporarily stalled this week as members of the County Board of Freeholders clashed again on a hotly questioned provision for a seven-man Board of Supervisors.

The dispute, which sparked the 21st meeting of the Freeholders, wound up with tabling of discussion on the supervisory board and Freeholders calmly checked off remaining charter provisions.

But before the smoke cleared in the Indio meeting room, the board returned to the subject of supervisors long enough to pass a motion setting a ceiling on supervisory salaries.

VOTING ON THE first draft of a county charter, prepared by Arvo Van Alstyne, UCLA law professor and Freeholders' consultant, progressed smoothly until board members reached an article proposing a seven-man board of supervisors, chairman Fred Eldridge reported.

Balloting halted when H. L. Harvill, of Alford, backed by Bruce Shangle, of Blythe, moved a charter amendment changing the provision to establish a five-man board.

Both maintained that a seven-man board "would not help the desert area to get greater representation," asserting that, "in the final analysis," supervisory districts will be drawn on a population basis.

DEFENDING THE seven-man proposal, Gordon Cologne and Mrs. Helen Hester, of Indio, used three principal arguments to support the charter provision. They said the seven-man board would "tend to correct the present districting, which puts four of the five supervisory districts into Riverside."

Cologne and Mrs. Hester maintained that the larger board would also serve to bring the supervisors closer to the people, because of the smaller districts; and would "probably provide more representation from rural areas."

HARVILL COUNTERED with the argument that even with a seven-man board, "it would be simple to redistrict in such a manner that six of the seven districts touch Riverside."

This brought criticism of the Freeholders' committee on supervisors and districts from Norman J. Davis of Beaumont, who felt that a plan for redistricting should have been written into the charter.

Davis said the county could, with charter provision, be assured of districting "free from political pressures usually faced by supervisors doing a redistricting job."

"I INTEND to bring in a redistricting plan whether the committee does or not," Davis declared.

Chairman Eldridge then suggested the appointment of a special committee for this purpose. The committee was formed with Davis as chairman.

Oldsmobile Has Moved Ahead With '58 Models

Oldsmobile has moved ahead of all competitors in the medium price class in the sale of new cars since the 1958 models were introduced, according to Oldsmobile's general manager and vice president of General Motors, J. F. Wolfram.

"I believe this indicates," Wolfram said, "that Oldsmobile will make an even stronger impact on the medium price class market in 1958." Ed McCoubrey, of Plaza Motors Cadillac - Oldsmobile, confirmed the fact that he has been informed by Wolfram that Oldsmobile is now the leader in the medium price class since the 1958 cars were unveiled.

Wolfram, prior to new model introductions, had predicted a good year for his company. In meetings with automotive writers, he had stated that Oldsmobile expected to take a larger share of medium price class.

"Oldsmobile sales since the introduction of the 1958 models in early November have been higher than during the same period a year ago," Wolfram added. "In the months of November and December, Oldsmobile retail sales increased by 10 per cent over the same period of 1956."

"Public reception of our brilliantly styled 1958 cars would indicate that our optimism is justified. It is apparent that more and more people like Oldsmobile's 'mobile look' and the continued engineering leadership for which Oldsmobile has become famous," Wolfram concluded.

Reservations Now Accepted For Show at Tennis Club

Reservations for the Bullock's-sponsored Helga Show at Palm Springs Tennis Club's Friday night dinner (Jan. 17) are now being accepted.

So broad in concept is the show that it will feature not one, but three new looks. The three new looks consist of new silhouettes featuring the sack, the low blouse and the full-skirted cocktail gown with plunging neckline.

TENNIS CLUB GUESTS will be privileged to see these styles shown for the first time in the desert area and they are exclusive with Bullock's Palm Springs. They are distinguished by their fluid loose lines and their fluid look, and are reflective of a slight trend toward princess lines which bear watching closely for later developments.

The softly feminine and simple Helga creations are made from the finest and most beautiful of imported fabrics, designed and made for Helga's exclusive use in the United States.

MANY OF THESE fabrics can be classified as globe trotters inasmuch as they travel from foreign land to foreign land before reaching the wearer. One model in the current collection has traveled 10,000 miles for processing. It was brought to this country from Europe designed at Helga's in Los Angeles, thence sent to Puerto Rico for hand embroidery and finally returned to California for moulding into a Helga Original.

Also noteworthy among the fabrics used are the warp - prints which are very elegant, and executed by such an intricate process that it is impossible to copy them for the less expensive lines. The prints have a soft, diffused look because the print is woven right into the fabric as the fabric itself is being woven.

Election Date Set for March 11

The date for election on proposed annexation to the Palm Springs Cemetery District was set by the Board of Supervisors this week for March 11. Approval of two-thirds of the qualified electors within the boundaries of the proposed annexation area is required to carry the issue.

U.S. Airman Goes On Trial in Greek Court Monday

ATHENS, Greece — A 22-year-old American airman goes on trial here next Monday Jan. 20 on manslaughter charges — the first U.S. serviceman to be tried by a Greek court and a storm center in the touchy question of national sovereignty.

Airman 3/c Marion Musilli, of Benwood, W. Va., is charged with involuntary manslaughter in the death of Gen. Staphanos Saraphis, wartime leftist underground leader and a member of Parliament.

SARAPHIS' POLITICAL connections have put Musilli squarely in the center of political strife—and provided a field day for leftist agitation against the U. S. Greek "status of forces" agreement.

The agreement has been attacked here as a form of "extra-territorial rights" for America.

The auto accident which took the Greek political leader's life—and injured his English-born wife, the former Marion Pascoe—took place last May 30.

MUSILLI WAS driving an Air Force car on a highway near the Athens airport when the accident occurred.

The car struck Saraphis and his wife when they were crossing the road en route to the seaside.

The death of Saraphis immediately aroused a storm in the Greek press. There were even whispers that the death was no accident—that it was carefully planned to get leftist Saraphis out of the way.

Defense Check Writers Ready to Give Full Amount

WASHINGTON — House defense check writers were reported near agreement today on giving President Eisenhower about all of the $1,260,000,000 emergency missile money he wants.

One source hinted that the 12-man defense appropriations subcommittee might even recommend slightly more than the President asked, possibly by transferring funds from less essential use.

Both a high Navy official and Dr. Alan T. Waterman, director of the National Science Foundation, protested meanwhile that the administration had slashed their research fund requests.

WATERMAN TOLD a House government operations subcommittee that the Budget Bureau cut the foundation's basic research funds by 30 per cent this year and knocked 20 per cent off the amount asked for the next fiscal year.

Assistant Navy Secretary Garrison Norton, in censored testimony released by the Senate preparedness subcommittee, said the Navy didn't get all the research and development funds it should have in the President's 1959 budget.

NORTON DISCLOSED a Nautilus-type atomic submarine would carry the 1,500-mile Polaris ballistic missile. He said priority development of the solid-fuel rocket was "eating into" other research areas on the Navy.

Three more missile manufacturers were called by the preparedness subcommittee. The House Armed Services Committee at the same time summoned Defense Department missile chief William M. Holaday in the continuing two-pronged investigation of the nation's missile lag.

IN OTHER DEVELOPMENTS:

—The Air Force said it will set up its first training unit for B-47 pilotless interceptor missiles today at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.

—Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.) told the House Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, who developed the atomic submarine, should be named boss of a new crash program to build a space ship.

The state tree of New Mexico is the piñon, a member of the pine family. Piñon wood was used as fuel by prehistoric Indians, and is still popular today because of its fragrance. Piñon nuts furnish food for wildlife, and Navajo Indians harvest them for their own use.

Realtors Hear Program by Farm Expert

CATHEDRAL CITY — Dean Halsey, of the University of Southern California Agricultural Extension Service at Indio, this week discussed new agriculture in the Coachella Valley at the Cathedral City Real Estate Board's breakfast meeting.

Halsey related various phases of agricultural development and reported that citrus crops are the valley's main products, noting that citrus fruit "lends itself to the area."

For potential valley farm land buyers, Halsey advised investigation of water facilities. He said potential buyers should find out if the land is in the water district or contact well diggers to determine water availability.

He warned of land where the water "is salty and not too good." Soil checks were also advised by Halsey, who rated fine sand as the best type of soil for planting here.

Hip boots or hunting boots can be dried by connecting a vacuum cleaner hose on the exhaust end of the cleaner and placing the other end of the hose in the toe of the boot.

Featuring will be the music of Larry Seymour and his "Rhythm Aires" well known studio musicians.

Mrs. Howard Deason and Mrs. Berton Lamb are in charge of ticket sales. Tickets for a dollar donation per person may be obtained from any P-TA member or at the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio on Broadway. Proceeds from Mid-Winter Frolic will aid the group in its civic activities.

County Board Opposes Proposed Welfare Bill After Members Clash

Irked by opposition of Supervisor Fred McCall to presentation of a statement he had prepared expressing opposition to Assembly Bill 1582 which would take from the counties the responsibility of aid to the old, the blind, and needy children, Supervisor Paul Anderson questioned McCall's knowledge of the state - county welfare program and fired questions at him as to what meetings he had attended, what he knows of welfare legislation, what articles on welfare he has read, etc. McCall's endeavor to adequately reply to the questions as they were hurled at him, was interrupted by Supervisor William Jones who had also expressed opposition to Anderson's point of view. "I object to the chairman's questioning a member of this board as to what he has read," he said.

"HOW MUCH HAVE you read about welfare Mr. Jones?" asked Anderson. "At this point it isn't any of your business," retorted Jones. Supervisor George Berkeley agreed with Anderson that it would be a duplication of facilities for the state to run part of the welfare program and would add to the tax base.

ANDERSON SAID he had planned to present his paper at a meeting Jan. 24 of the State Assembly Interim Committee on Social Welfare provided the board voted approval of his stand on the bill, but is not sure now that he can attend. He asked that an alternate be appointed to present his paper in case he cannot be there himself. Supervisor Berkeley made a motion that the board oppose the Assembly bill and that Supervisor Anderson present his paper at the state committee meeting if possible, with Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen or Welfare Director John McIntyre to make the presentation in case Andersen could not make the trip. The motion was seconded by Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain and carried by a three to two vote with McCall and Jones dissenting.

SAID CHAMBERLAIN, "I know that Supervisor Anderson has been to Sacramento meetings and has spent a lot of time studying the welfare change proposal. He has talked with Orange and San Bernardino County officials." Anderson's three - page paper states many reasons for leaving the welfare system of local administration of public welfare as it is. He said it is democratic and has been accepted by the electorate the last two times they have had an opportunity to express themselves on the question. Under the proposed bill counties would still have to administer the medical care for public assistance recipients, indigent aid, services to children and aged in boarding homes and institutions, licensing of such homes, child welfare services and adoption program.

Employers Given Warning on State Income Reports

Employers who are now preparing Forms W-2 for the U. S. Internal Revenue Service should also prepare Forms 599 for the California Franchise Tax Board, Robert C. Kirkwood, the Board's Chairman, said today. Employers must report to the State for each single employee who was paid $2,000 or more and each married employee who was paid $3,500 or more during 1957. If the employee is a resident of California, a Form 599 must be filed even though the services were performed outside California.

Copies of Federal Form W-2 may be used in place of State Form 599 if it is clearly indicated whether the employee is single or married, and if the copies are accompanied by Form 596. These must be filed with the Franchise Tax Board on or before Saturday, Feb. 15.

'Bunny Lake Is Missing' Listed as New Top Mystery

By LYLE SMITH
Among the newest mysteries the most gripping is called BUNNY LAKE IS MISSING, by Evelyn Piper. This is not a solitary opinion. Others of the consistent mystery readers have returned this to the library with hands still shaking. It is an unexpected tour de force by a woman writer who has produced several others in the mystery field, none so successful as this.

It is the story of a beautiful young mother with a new job in a strange city. At the end of the day she calls for her small daughter at a respectable nursery school. It is a reminiscent situation, pleasant, commonplace. At some point thereafter the reader is caught in incredulous horror, and cannot stop reading. Fortunately it is not a large book, none so successful as this.

THE DIVIDING LINE between the mystery-thriller and the psychological novel is dim. Helen McCloy, who has written many excellent mysteries has discarded the traditional form in her new book, a chiller, THE SLAYER AND THE SLAIN. There are guns, a beautiful heroine, a southern plantation, suicide, inheritance, a pleasant hero. But this is not a mystery. The killer is unknown until the end. Still it is not a mystery. From ordinary ingredients Helen McCloy has made an extraordinary book of suspense and disaster.

DAUGHTER, has written his version of the story of William Palmer, who was publicly hanged as a poisoner in 1856. Today his effigy dominates a wax-work group in Mme. Tassaud's Chamber of Horrors. The book has a wonderful title: THEY HANGED MY SAINTLY BILLY.

Mr. Graves almost proves that Dr. Palmer did not poison any of the fourteen people whose deaths have been attributed to him. It is funny and fascinating.

Over 6 Million Visit National Forest in 1957; New Record

Recreational visits to the San Bernardino National Forest exceeded 6,800,000 during 1957 making this the most popular and heaviest used National Forest area in the nation, according to Sim E. Jarvi, Forest Supervisor. The increase of one million visits over the 1956 record is the result of a number of factors that added to the popularity of this year-round playground. New highway construction and improvement of old highways during 1956 have placed the San Bernardino National Forest within one hour of the center of metropolitan areas such as Los Angeles, Orange - Riverside - San Bernardino areas and within two hours of the San Diego area.

HUNTERS and fishermen found greater enjoyment in the forest areas when early rains permitted lifting of the fire closures to allow greater hunting effort. Fishermen benefitted for the first time from a year-round fishing season, heavier and more frequent fish planting of catchable size fish. Popular commercial resorts within the National Forest caused considerable, and sometimes spectacular, increases in Sunday visits and sightseeing. Campers and picnickers found more attractive facilities for their recreation due to increased maintenance and rehabilitation of camp and picnic areas made possible by increased funds allotted by Congress to the U. S. Forest Service for "Operation Outdoors."

LABOR DAY weekend was the heaviest used three day period in the history of the forest with a peak population of well over 300,000 people.

Eleven mechanical traffic counters placed on the main forest roads and more frequent spot checks on the wide variety of uses, made possible by increased funds provided in "Operation Outdoors," have insured a greater degree of accuracy in obtaining estimates of recreation use, according to David M. Tucker, Forest Service Resource Officer.

SOME OF THE more popular recreation activities include 162,308 visits for camping, 260,310 visits for picnicking, 207,210 visits for hunting and fishing, 116,000 visits for winter sports, 53,769 visits to organizations camp, 16,591 visits to wilderness area, 977,382 visits to sightseeing and general enjoyment. These figures do not include the more than twelve million persons who annually cross the San Bernardino National Forest while traveling on Highway 66 through Cajon Pass.

Peaches Add Zip To Plain Omelet

To add taste to that tired and plain omelet, try a deviled ham-filled broiled peach as an accompaniment.

The deviled ham is mixed with mayonnaise and spooned into the center of canned cling peaches, which are then slipped under a broiler for about three minutes.

The warm, bubbly peach will add to the meal.

Georgann Strebe Is Bride of Howard Gardner

After a honeymoon spent at the Riviera hotel in Las Vegas, Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. Gardner Jr. who were married in Nevada, in the Chapel of the Little Church of the West on December 27 before the Reverend Thomas J. Daly, are now settled in their home in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Gardner is the former Georgann Strebe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Strebe of Palm Springs and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gardner Sr. of Oklahoma City.

The bride chose a brocaded white satin sheath dress with matching accessories for her wedding gown.

Georgann, who attended Katherine Finch school in the Village, is a graduate of Westlake school for girls, and spent one semester at Katherine Gibbs secretarial school in New York.

After two years in the service, Howard resumed his studies at the Oklahoma university in Oklahoma where he is studying chemical engineering.

Gingerbread Is One World Dish

It takes a galaxy of extraordinary ingredients to glamorize an ordinary thing such as gingerbread.

Unspiced molasses from the West Indies brings a rich and aromatic flavor. From the East Indies come the cinnamon, ginger and cloves that spice it up.

You can slip some gingerbread cupcakes into your child's lunchbox tomorrow. He may not know it, but he'll be eating an old American cookery favorite.

To make molasses gingerbread: cream 1/2 cup of butter and one cup of brown sugar. Beat in two eggs, then add 1/2 teaspoon of grated lemon rind.

Sift together two cups of flour, one teaspoon of baking, one teaspoon of soda, 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon of ginger.

Then combine 1/2 cup of boiling water and 1/2 cup of molasses. Add to the butter mixture, and beat after each addition.

Pour the mixture into paper crinkle cups, and bake in a 350-degree oven for about 15 minutes or until done.

Yield: a dozen cupcakes.

Whole Milk Is Best for Diets

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Non-fat milk isn't all its cracked up to be in the diets of overweight persons, University of Illinois researchers warned today.

Whole milk contains food elements which are needed by everyone. Heavyweights should cut down on some other foods rather than switching to non-fat milk, they advised.

Television Star Commutes From Palm Springs to Studio

Motion picture personalities are certainly no rarity in the Village nor at the airport — unless of course they happen to be Dorothy Green who is a part time star and full time mother . . .

This flame-tressed beauty shown leaving the airport has been vacationing in the desert with her family but commuting daily to Hollywood where she is rehearsing for the first live production of the top-flight dramatic show "Studio One" to originate from the CBS Hollywood studios.

Having played leads on every west coast show it was only natural that she should be cast in the premiere "Studio One" but it was just as natural that she would be enjoying the Village with her family at the same time and since "family comes first" in the case of the glamorous Mrs. Green her trip was a hectic round robin of sun - script studying - tennis - swimming - and catching planes . . .

When jokingly asked "why" she replied, "this will help with the children's tuition at school and help with the new pool at home" . . . And once again Dorothy's interest in her family rather than the usual razzamatazz of show business came to the front . . .

Colors and Fabrics to Compensate for Chemise

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Women's Editor
NEW YORK — The spring crop of colors and fabrics is bountiful this season, even if there is a famine in silhouettes.

It's as if designers were saying to women, "Okay, we're giving you little other than the loose-fitted chemise and its variations in silhouette. But we'll make it up to you otherwise."

Bold solid colors and splashy floral prints are featured by the 30 firms who this week are participating in the semi-annual showings by the couture group of the New York Dress Institute.

Fabrics are extravagant—thick downy tweeds in silk, silk crepes, chiffons and surahs, silk twills, brushed fleecy wools, hand-painted chintilly laces, pure linens and silks which look like linen, and rustic cottons woven to look like a Harris tweed.

Manufacturer Harvey Berin showed party dresses in white lace embroidered with pink floss. Coil Chapman's cocktail and evening dress collection was full of glossy, floral cottons rich as silk in texture.

And Samuel Winston bragged that the fabric in a white re-embroidered and applied lace evening dress cost him $146 a yard.

Colors in both daytime and evening wear are vibrant rather than subdued. Miss Chapman featured a whole group of figure-revealing evening dresses in flame red chiton. And bright red suits, and coats show through most collections. The firm or Originals showed coats in Bougainvillea red, clear yellow, melon, azalea pink, flame red and tobacco brown.

Navy remains the spring favorite, usually combined with white. And white stands alone in many collections. Miss Chapman showed one slim-cut short cocktail dress in white silk crepe, topped by a white wool jersey jacket fastened below the waist with a big jeweled button.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Novick from Chicago are vacationing at the Bermuda Palms for two months.

Vacations Here
Mrs. Anna Krysan of Calmar, Iowa, arrived Sunday to spend a vacation with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Krysan of 677 Calle de Marcus.

Anniversary And Birthday Celebrated

A tenth wedding anniversary and birthday were celebrated at the double event party Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. T. Burt Maguire (Lillian Roth) entertained in Spur and Sable room of La Paz hotel. It was their 10th anniversary, and Mrs. Maguire Senior's birthday, so a cake marked half for one event and half for the other was presented to the group.

Lillian Roth and her husband were married twice. First was January 10th in New York city and just four days later in a Catholic church in Los Angeles, so they pick a day between to mark the two occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Maguire Sr., or New York and South Hampton, have come to Palm Springs to visit their son and daughter-in-law in their home here.

The honorees were presented with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums and red roses by Ralph Wilcox Taylor, owner of La Paz.

Film Colony Frequently At Doll House

Richard Zanuck Weds Actress

HOLLYWOOD — Actor Richard Zanuck, 23, son of producer Darryl F. Zanuck, left Tuesday night for a 10-day honeymoon in Acapulco, Mexico.

Bon Voyage Party Given For The Eichers

A surprise dinner was held at the Ranch Club Saturday evening honoring the Joe Eichers who are leaving Friday for Cuba.

The trip is a bonus prize with all expenses paid from the Carrier Corporation air conditioning manufacturers for the best salesman in the various districts throughout the States. Two were chosen from Southern California.

The Eichers will fly direct to New York where they will board the Queen of Bermuda, with the other prize winners. They will visit in Nassau, Kingston and Havana before returning to New York and home.

Following dinner at the Ranch Club the party adjourned to the Anado Road home of the Howard Haddocks where a beautifully decorated cake inscribed "Bon Voyage Marian and Joe," was served with coffee. At the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Jake Clemens, Victor Hunt, Red Broughton, and Robert White.

Start Day With Big Breakfast

An adequate and wholesome breakfast is important in anyone's diet, home economics students discovered for themselves at the University of Illinois.

The breakfast skippers thought their diets were even above standard until they began comparing what they ate with recommended diets which provide all required nutrients.

They discovered their typical food intake was below par for ascorbic acid, iron and calcium. And a study of their diets revealed they skipped breakfast and missed some essentials.

A good solid breakfast—orange juice, an egg, toast and cocoa—provided just what was needed for the coddles. An extra glass of milk helped too.

To Promote Float With Card Sales

"Promote Palm Springs To The Nation With Your Rose Parade Donation," sent in by Marion Hamilton, has been chosen as the winning slogan to help raise funds for a Rose Tournament float for next year, the Palm Springs Float Association reported today. The Junior Chamber of Commerce will be in charge of the promotion of the sale of Float Association Membership Cards. The Junior Chamber will be assisted by the Jayceettes and Palm Springs school girls, the girls being under the direction and supervision of Warren Linville, principal of the Nellie Coffman Junior High School. All girls in the Palm Springs Unified School District, ages 16 to 20 years may compete in the sale of memberships. When each girl has sold 150 memberships, she will qualify to enter the beauty contest for the Queen's Court to ride on the float in the 1959 New Year's Day Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena.

An elimination contest for the selection of this Court of Beauties will start in September, the date and place, and arrangements to be made by the Junior Chamber of Commerce later. Girls not attending school, between the ages of 16 and 20 years, married or single, may sell membership cards too, working directly with the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Sand Painting Program for Club Meeting

When the AAUW held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, at Cahuilla school Enola Hulbert and her Sand Witches from Desert Hot Springs presented an exhibition of an original type of art known as sand painting.

Plans were discussed for the AAUW annual home tour to be held Sunday, February 16. This year's tour will emphasize the homes of well-known builders and architects. Proceeds from the tour go toward helping a local high school student go to college.

On the committee for the home tour are Beverly Muelder who is in charge of publicity; Mary Bunker and Jewel Locke, co-chairman of the committee to set up the homes for the tour; Margo Morrison, in charge of transportation.

Tickets for this event are on sale for $2 and may be obtained by calling Hazel Gross at Fairview 4-1802.

Following the meeting refreshments were served, with Margaret Jones, refreshment chairman, in charge.

Recent diners at the Doll House were Hal Wallis, producer, Allen J. Lerner of "My Fair Lady," Kirk Douglas and wife Anne Budgens, and Sammy Cahn, famous song writer.

CLOWN PAINTINGS by John Morris are treasured by their owners and real conversation pieces. Latest in a series which has included clown paintings of Virginia and Charles Farrell, and Bing Crosby, is the Hildy Crawford Clown which had its unveiling at the artist's new studio on Barona Road. The Desert Sun's society editor and columnist is holding a pencil and in the background, a man bites a dog to make news in a desert setting. The three balloons overhead are labeled "The Desert Sun," "Press Club," and "Appearing Next Week—Ginny Simms." Shown with the oil painting are, from left, actress Taina Elg of "Les Girls," Consul from Brazil Raul De Smanek, Hildy Crawford, artist John Morris, Ginny Simms and Ward Risvold, Desert Sun publisher. ## Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK. (AP) — You don't need muscles like a blacksmith to be a world champion and proof of this is pretty, streamlined Nancie Rideout.

Nancie is a sun-kissed, 19-year-old Floridian with all the right things in the right places. What the boys in my day called a "looker," she is an accomplished cook and likes music which she can accompany on a torrid trumpet.

But she also holds the world record in water ski jumping—a 50-mile-an-hour leap of 77 feet.

NANCIE IS THE OVERALL national water skiing champion, a captured at Florida's Ross Gardens by top pros at jumping, slalom skiing. She also, incidentally, is the only woman who can ski in her bare feet.

And it isn't because I have big feet, either," she smiled. "I only wear a six and one-half shoe."

Nancie began water skiing in 1931 because her father was a fisherman.

It seems that pop always went fishing alone and finally the family—ma, Nancie and her two brothers and sister—demanded to be taken along. It set pop back $30 and he decided that rather than continue paying that kind of money he'd better buy a boat.

The salesman talked him into taking a set of water skis as well.

"POOR DAD HADN'T been fishing since," she said. "He's been too busy piloting the boat for the rest of us while we water ski."

Nancie soon shot to the top, literally and figuratively. The "top" in this case was the five-foot high water ski jump. The men's jump is six feet high with a top two boat speed of 50 miles an hour. Women are limited to a 28-mile-per-hour boat speed.

"But we hit the jump at about 50 miles an hour by cracking the whip and cutting across the wake of the boat," she explained.

NANCIE, a five-foot, five-inch blonde who was the Florida State diving champion at 13 and also is a boat test pilot, can do more tricks on water skis than most folks can do standing on dry land. One of her best is the backward swan, which consists of skiing backwards on one foot with the other hooked in the swivel handle. The toughest, she says, is the 360-swallow over the wake.

This one consists of the backward swan while making like an egg beater.

Her final skiing ambition is to win the overall world championship when the event is held at Milan, Italy, next year.

All she wants to do then, boys, is get married.

The Big 'Cap for California horses—the $25,000-added Santa Catalina at 1-1 1/2 miles—with the $20,000-added Santa Monica Handicap for fillies and mares will provide the double attraction at Santa Anita Park Saturday that promises to out-draw last season's turn-out of 32,414.

Both events are leading up to major stakes on the schedule. The Santa Catalina will bring into action some of the top contenders for the $135,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap on March 1. Prospective starters are Terrang, Swirling Abbey, Eddie Schmidt, County Chic, Like Magic (full brother to Swaps) and Bequeath, among others.

The Santa Monica at seven furlongs will give a line on the sparkling field coming up for the $50,000-added Santa Margarita Handicap on Feb. 8.

On Saturday of next week, Jan. 25, the 11th running of the estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maternity will be the outstanding classic to be presented.

Santa Anita's Saturday stakes are being carried on 16 CBS TV stations for the third consecutive season under the sponsorship of the Union Oil Company KNXT (2) is the local outlet.

PLAZA MOTORS ENTERS PIN LEAGUE PLAY-OFF

First half of the Palm Springs Bowling League came to an end this week with Plaza Motors and Palm Springs Elks, 1905, tied for the lead with identical 39-21 records.

When they met at Palm Springs Bowling Academy during the regular schedule, Plaza Motors out-bowled the Elks 3 games to one, however, and so will meet the winners of the second half of the league race for the season's championship.

L.A. Dodgers Are Still Bums Without a Home

LOS ANGELES — A decision on whether the Los Angeles Dodgers will make their temporary home in the huge Memorial Coliseum was left in the air again today as the Coliseum Commission's finance committee studied Walter O'Malley's latest proposal.

The committee was to report back Friday morning.

The commission voted to refer the offer to its finance committee when other users of the stadium—the Los Angeles Rams and USC and UCLA—objected the Dodgers would be paying only half the rental they pay. The football clubs also turn over all of the concession profits to the coliseum, while O'Malley wants to keep them.

Joe Hernandez Just Kept on Announcing

ARCADIA — Joe Hernandez, announcer who has handled every race at Santa Anita Park since its opening in 1934, has proved beyond doubt that he is a pro at his game.

The fast-talking announcer was calling the eighth race Wednesday when a $51.90 longshot, named Tabicon, came from far back to score a win.

Hernandez voice never betrayed that Tabicon was racing under his colors.

Indians Face Strong Elsinore Five Friday

Try to Get Back Into Contention In RCL Race

By JOE HENDERSON JR.

Turned back by Banning High School's Broncs in both divisions of the Riverside County League basketball campaign, Tuesday night, Coach Jim Workman's Indians were polishing up their game for the invasion of Elsinore High tomorrow night.

It will be the first home game of the RCL season for both the Varsity and Bees.

"We just couldn't seem to click Tuesday night," said Workman, "and I hope — and look for — a different result tomorrow night."

HE ADDED, however, that the Indians could expect trouble even if the game is on the local hardwood.

Elsinore's Varsity rambled over San Jacinto Tuesday night by a 55 to 45 score while the Indians had difficulty subduing San Jacinto last Friday night, 53-51 in overtime play.

"Of course, Elsinore was playing on its home floor when it romped over San Jac," the coach said, "while we were on the San Jac floor when we edged them. That may make a difference."

THE PAPPAGE OUTFIT may experience trouble, too, for Elsinore's Bees are currently leading that division with a 2-0 mark while Palm Springs is in a six-way tie for second place with a 1-1 record.

Tomorrow night's games will start at 7 p. m. for the Bees and the Varsity game will follow immediately.

Martinez Eyes Welter Crown

PHILADELPHIA — Vince Martinez, the Paterson profile, began trying the welterweight crown for size today after his win-by-a-whisker over Gil Turner gained him an NBA title shot with Isaac Logart.

Vince's rally came up suddenly like a squall in the ninth, got up added steam in the tenth and carried him through to a 12-round majority decision over gallant Gil in their nationally-televised elimination Wednesday night.

STANFORD EXPECTED TO NAME CURTICE COACH

SAN FRANCISCO — The Stanford University Board of Trustees was expected to put the formal stamp of approval today on the selection of Utah's Jack Curtice as head football coach.

The university Board of Athletic Control decided Wednesday on the "name" of the new coach but withheld any announcement until after the meeting of the Board of Trustees.

In Salt Lake City, Curtice would not say definitely that he was the Indians' new coach.

"I have until noon today to decide, and I may flip a coin at 11:59," Curtice said.

There was a chance that Curtice might not be the new coach but his was the only recurring name

Dougherty to Head Brown's Campaign in This County

Attorney General Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, candidate for Governor of California, and Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, his campaign manager for Southern California, announced today the appointment of Harry M. "Bob" Dougherty, Riverside attorney, as campaign chairman for Riverside County.

Dougherty is a partner in the firm of Thompson & Colegate of Riverside. For three years he was Riverside's first full time city attorney and for five years served as assistant district attorney of Riverside County.

DOUGHERTY WAS elected a member of the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California and served three years on the Board, representing the counties of Orange, San Bernardino, Indio and Riverside. He was vice president of the State Bar of California and has served as president and trustee of the Riverside County Bar Association.

In accepting the appointment, Dougherty stated that he has appointed John Neblett, Riverside attorney, as finance chairman and Mary O'Keefe as executive secretary for the Riverside County Committee.

IT WAS ALSO announced that sub-committees would be created, with sub-chairman, composed of local citizens within the various areas, who will assist in handling the campaign, thereby obtaining the benefits of "grass roots" representation.

Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, present Attorney General of California, first came into state-wide prominence in 1943 when he was elected District Attorney of San Francisco, defeating the incumbent. He was re-elected to this office in 1947.

In 1950 he won the Democratic nomination for attorney general and in the general election defeated his Republican opponent. Brown was re-elected in 1954, receiving both the Democratic and Republican nominations in the primary.

County Votes $400 for Roof Repair at Indio

An allocation of $400 from the county's unappropriated reserve fund was authorized by the Board of Supervisors this week for repair of the roof of the administration building in Indio.

The roof will be covered with roofing paper. Several leaks were revealed in the last rain. The repair was recommended by Building Management Superintendent Clay Begole with approval by Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen.

Coachella Street Work Approved

An agreement with the City of Coachella was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week whereby the county road department agrees to improve major streets within the city during 1958. The city will reimburse the county from gas tax monies.

Pitt County, N. C. is the leading tobacco producer in the nation, the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond reports.

Physicians Given Salary Increases

An ordinance was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week increasing the salaries for the positions of physician in medicine and physician in surgery at the county's General Hospital in Arlington, from $655 to $750 per month.

The salary increase was recommended by Personnel Director

High School Graduates With Good Grades to Have Little Trouble Enrolling in College

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — An — High school graduate, with good records will have little difficulty getting into college this fall.

While some big name institutions are swamped with applicants, there are hundreds of respected schools in every section of the country where the welcome mat is out.

These facts — which may surprise worried high school seniors and their parents — emerged from a nationwide United Press survey.

ALTHOUGH COLLEGE enrollment climbed this year to an all-time high of 3,048,000, the survey showed there are still thousands of empty beds in college dormitories across the land. Many schools are actually suffering a shortage of students, and are scrambling hard for qualified candidates for the next freshman class.

Educators agreed that three factors have helped to create an erroneous public impression that all colleges are overcrowded:

1. PEOPLE HAVE BEEN reading about the "tidal wave" of students that will hit U. S. colleges a few years from now, and have gotten mistaken idea that it's already here. This "tidal wave" is not a figment of imagination; college enrollment can be expected to double within the next decade. But the pressure on higher education facilities won't become critical until the early 1960's, when college enrollments begin to reflect the sharp jump in the U.S.

birth rate which occurred after World War II.

2. ANXIOUS HIGH school seniors, who share the popular belief that it's already very hard to get into college, have been driving registrars crazy by making applications to as many as 15 or 20 institutions. This growing practice of "multiple application" has misled many schools into thinking that they have far more candidates than they can accommodate.

3. Pride keeps many schools from admitting publicly that they have room for more students. There is a widespread feeling that the "prestige of the institution" requires the dean to boast about how many applications are pouring in, even when he is secretly beating the bushes for freshmen.
